WHAT IS THE HEALING JOURNEY?

Your Healing Journey should be Intentional and Focused... mine was not! When I found myself going through my healing journey, I had no idea that was what I was doing. I just found myself in a very broken space, and I was so internally sad that I needed to figure out what was causing the pain.

Naturally, as humans, we are conditioned to look for the external sources that are contributing to our sadness, an unappreciative partner, an unfulfilling career, or disrespectful children; we like to point our fingers at others for the cause of our unhappiness... But that is NEVER really the problem. Most of the pain we feel is a direct source of the trauma we have endured in life and how we have interpreted that trauma. Most of our pain can be resolved, if we learn to face those traumas, and heal from them.

This is the Healing Journey.

MY COACHING PROCESS

In full transparency, maneuvering through the healing process is difficult and it can be lonely at times. To fully address your challenges, hard work is required and this process can be very uncomfortable. With my experience and education in the area of Trauma and Healing, I have created a specifically designed process to help you maneuver through the Healing Process and Journey.

The coaching process will begin with you engaging in an assessment to determine what challenges you are facing. Once that information is obtained, we will then work as a collaborative team to create a personalized Healing Homegirl Plan to resolve those challenges. As a team, we will work through your personalized Homegirl Healing Plan, with you being the Driver and me being your Healing Coach.

I am a “feet to fire” coach, meaning that my coaching style is pressurized and challenging. This style stems from my belief that we cannot achieve greatness without work. You are changing yourself from the inside out, that’s no easy feat, but with courage and a support system it can be done.

The Healing Homegirl Coaching Package provides a 1:1 intimate collaboration, to provide you the support that you will need, and the courage to face this journey head on.
